Powered by the P400 3.0L Inline-6 engine with mild-hybrid technology, it produces a robust 395 hp, allowing this rugged icon to reach 100 km/h in a swift 5.8 seconds. The standard Electronic Air Suspension is a critical feature for Canadian drivers, providing the ability to raise the vehicle for deep snow or off-road obstacles while maintaining a composed, luxury-car ride on the highway. The X-Dynamic SE trim adds a layer of "stealth luxury" to the Defender's utilitarian roots, featuring a Black Contrast Roof, Satin Dark Grey wheels, and Silicon Silver exterior accents. Inside, the cabin is upgraded with heated and cooled front seats and a premium Meridian™ Surround Sound System. The tech suite is led by the 11.4-inch Pivi Pro touchscreen, which remains the most intuitive system in its class, featuring wireless smartphone integration and integrated navigation that stays updated via over-the-air software. Engineered for extreme environments, the Defender 110 comes standard with Terrain Response 2, which can automatically sense and adapt the vehicle's powertrain to ice, mud, or sand. For those towing trailers or boats, the 8,201 lb towing capacity is best-in-class for a mid-size SUV, supported by features like Advanced Tow Assist and a 3D Surround Camera that makes hitching effortless. With its signature "alpine lights" windows and a full-size spare tire mounted to the side-hinged tailgate, the 2026 P400 X-Dynamic SE is as much a status symbol as it is a world-class adventure tool.
